JOIN THE ONLINE TOWN

JOIN THE CHAT ON MATRIX

This week we're meeting in The Online Town.

Online Town is a video-calling experience that lets multiple people hold separate conversations in parallel and lets you walk in, out and around those conversations just as easily as you would in real life. It's also fun.

Feel free to join and drop out at any point. Everyone is invited to join us, no travel necessary.

ONLINE MEETUP INSTRUCTIONS

At 19:00 join our little Online Town. It works from the browser and uses your webcam and microphone over WebRTC.

Is that all options?

Nope! Absolutely not!

Couple of other ones that came about

Didn't get around to trying them, though...
